

Ad Hoc Commission Oversight Recommendations

Alleged FCPD Misconduct

Auditor to Review

Death or Serious Injury cases and UOF cases which are the subject of a citizen complaint.

Auditor to (i) participate in and monitor IAB investigations of such cases, and (ii) determine the “thoroughness, completeness, accuracy, objectivity and impartiality” of each investigation and issue a public report on such determination (Auditor can request additional investigation or conduct own investigation.)

If Auditor disagrees with an IAB investigation, Auditor is to advise Chief of Police who shall resolve the disagreement and make the final decision – with notice to the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and the issuance of a public report as to Chief’s reasoning.

Auditor to Review

Quarterly reports from FCPD on the disposition of all citizen complaints to determine if FCPD responding to and investigating complaints in a timely manner.

Panel to Review

Complaints as to alleged FCPD abuse of authority or serious misconduct (exclusive of alleged misconduct subject to review by the Auditor).

Panel to refer all complaints to FCPD for review and handling. FCPD to issue a public report within 60 days as to its review and handling of the complaint.

Request for review of a completed FCPD report on such complaint can be made to the Panel within 60 days of notice to complainant of FCPD report.

Panel may schedule public hearing to review FCPD investigation (complainant and FCPD involved officers may testify but are not required to do so; command staff and IAB investigators to appear at Panel’s request) with public report to be issued with 60 days of request for review.

If Panel disagrees with FCPD investigation, Panel to advise the Chairman of the Board of Supervisors who shall refer the Panel’s conclusion to the Chief of Police for further consideration. Panel will not be involved in or delay administrative disciplinary process.

Note: Both Auditor and Panel are to issue annual reports to the public concerning their activities and are to provide public recommendations to the Board of Supervisors and the Chief of Police on proposed revisions to FCPD policies, training and practices.
